Unique & United: Partner Guide

Your creative expressions help fund the work of these amazing organizations! Learn more about each partner and what they are doing as part of the Students Rebuild Unique & United project.

These overviews can also be found on the Students Rebuild website alongside short 40-second videos highlighting the work of each organization listed below.

CARE

CARE works around the globe to save lives, defeat poverty, and achieve social justice. We seek a world of hope, inclusion, and social justice, where poverty has been overcome and all people live with dignity and security.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, CARE Honduras will expand its work with youth facing the intersecting challenges of migration, reintegration, and violence. This year, CARE will engage young people—especially young women—in group activities designed to strengthen solidarity, build self-worth, and increase the respect they feel and receive from their communities. By addressing their unique needs and creating safe spaces for expression and connection, CARE aims to foster unity and unlock better opportunities for their futures.

Choose Love

Choose Love does whatever it takes to provide refugees and displaced people with everything from lifesaving search and rescue boats to food and legal advice. We elevate the voices and visibility of refugees and galvanise public support for agile community organisations providing vital support to refugees along migration routes globally.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Choose Love will expand their work with the Dobrodiy Club in Ukraine, Refocus Media Labs in Greece, and Free Movement Skateboarding in Greece. These programs provide vital support for conflict-affected youth, fostering a safe environment for displaced young people to learn, process experiences, and create art away from the daily trauma of war.

Homeboy Industries

Homeboy Industries challenges systems of oppression by centering life experiences and cultural knowledge of impacted communities to inspire transformation and reclaim self-agency.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Homeboy Art Academy will expand its 12-month youth reentry program. Through healing-centered art classes and workshops, youth explore their unique perspectives, reinterpreting traumas and triumphs through poetry, painting, music, design, and other disciplines. By inviting participants to explore their identities through arts classes and workshops, Homeboy Industries aims to reconnect young people with their culture and community.

Kids for Peace

Kids for Peace is building a global community of kind, compassionate, and empowered young people who are uplifting the world through love and action.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Kids for Peace will implement Project UNITE, a comprehensive program of workshops and events designed to help youth explore their uniqueness while building connections across differences. By leveraging its extensive global network to support the initiative, Kids for Peace will foster inclusion and support underrepresented community members like refugees, special needs students, and LGBTQI+ youth.

Narrative 4

Narrative 4 is equipping young people to harness the power of stories to drive change in their communities. We believe that inhabiting someone else's story—even for a moment—we are better able to understand each other and better equipped to change the world, student by student, school by school, story by story.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Narrative 4 will integrate the Students Rebuild's Unique & United project within its Cities School Challenge, reaching 40 schools in Kenya. The program aims to enhance students' leadership skills through storytelling and mentorship, enabling them to become creative changemakers who can identify local challenges and propose effective solutions. By seamlessly integrating with the Students Rebuild framework, Narrative 4 will work with young people to explore their identities, celebrate their differences, and use creative expression to share their vision of a more united world.

Open Roads

Open Roads provides educational enrichment and personal growth programs for high school and college-age youth from low-income backgrounds, with a focus on reaching youth who show leadership potential.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Open Roads will train program alumni to become vocal leaders in discussions around the value of individuality, the power of unity, and the importance of time spent in nature. By helping young adults discover the benefits of nature and connection to others, Open Roads aims to equip them with the skills necessary to become leaders of unity and social change.

Ripples of Hope

Ripples of Hope is built to put into action the challenge presented by Robert Kennedy in South Africa in 1966: to stand up for an ideal, to act to improve the lot of others, and to strike out against injustice. By collaborating with individuals and organizations from all sectors – public, private, and nonprofit – they work to build a network of support and innovation that addresses the challenges facing our communities, nation and wor

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Ripples of Hope will expand its International Fellowship, supporting South Africa-based fellows in using creative activities, such as dance and spoken word, to promote cultural exchange and strengthen community bonds.

Search for Common Ground

Search for Common Ground works to transform the way people deal with conflict, building healthy, safe, and just societies around the world. They do this through building trust and creating collaboration opportunities for adversaries, ultimately leading to breakthroughs for peace.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Search for Common Ground will develop a pilot of the Common Ground Leadership Academy, a program that equips a new generation of changemakers with the skills and insights necessary to bridge divides and transform conflicts. By supporting leaders with tools to identify and manage conflicts in non-adversarial ways, Search for Common Ground aims to foster unity.

TREEAMS

TREEAMS (Together Revitalizing Environments and Elevating Awareness by Mobilizing Society) empowers students across Los Angeles to lead ecological and emotional renewal of their communities after the devastating January 2025 fires.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, TREEAMS will expand their work empowering Los Angeles students to come together across the city to plant trees, restore optimism, and reimagine Los Angeles as a greener, more resilient city for generations to come. By equipping students with tools and resources, TREEAMS aims to instill healing, hope, and action in young people across Los Angeles.

Welcoming America

Welcoming America supports communities in building a welcoming society where every person, including immigrants, can fully contribute and shape our shared prosperity.

Through the grant from Creative Visions, Welcoming America will expand their work supporting rural leaders across the US, increasing confidence and advancing inclusion in their communities. By connecting leaders and providing tested methods and approaches for inclusive and welcoming places, Welcoming America helps communities create policies, reinforce welcoming principles, and communicate the benefits of inclusion.
