

Designed to FAIL America's Dirtiest Corporate Con

A searing investigation into how America's most powerful industries conspired to destroy the country's recycling system causing a global plastic waste, climate and public health crisis and costing taxpayers billions of dollars. A massive scam that might have gone unchecked if not for one woman with a simple but effective plan to save recycling.